SIA Annual Subscriptions & Joining Fees

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- A business which manufactures or distributes any stoves or fireplaces, whether or not this is their main line of business, is treated as an appliance manufacturer or distributor for the purposes of annual subscriptions.
- Turnover for SIA Members is based on group turnover, including any group turnover which may be outside of the stove or fireplace industry.
- The joining fee for SIA Members and SIA Stakeholder Members is considered appropriate as all new SIA Members and SIA Stakeholder Members will immediately receive the benefits of previous work the SIA has done to promote the industry and represent the industry position on regulations, and which has been funded by past subscriptions of existing members.
- The membership year varies by category as follows:
 - SIA Members and SIA Stakeholder Members - 1st July to 30th June
 - SIA Associate Members - 1st September to 31st August
 - SIA Supporter Members - on the 1st day of the month of sign-up.
- A pro-rata charging process is used for SIA Member, SIA Associate Member (not paying by direct debit) or SIA Stakeholder Member fees when joining part way through a membership year. Renewal thereafter will be in line with the dates shown above. The joining fee for Members and Stakeholder Members is based on a full membership year and is not pro-rata.
- Direct Debit payment is only available to SIA Associate Members.
- All SIA membership types are full year contracts and we are unable to offer partial refunds.
